The League of Parents and Teachers is currently raising funds for our Media Center, Technology Department and a communication system for our school. We greatly appreciate your participation in this event!

For those of you who are not familiar with our organization, The League of Parents and Teachers is an organization that is pursuing excellence in our students as our primary mission. We realize educating the whole child involves not only having outstanding teachers and administrators, but also parents that are actively involved with their child at home and who are willing to pursue excellence in all the students at Amelia Academy by taking an ownership mentality toward Amelia Academy. The League of Parents and Teachers serves as the conduit between the school and parents. It is led by parents, and is committed to increasing parent involvement that leads to a quality educational experience for all the students.
